Numb. 9105.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 26, to Tuesday October 29, 1751.

St. James's, October 28.

THIS Day about One o'Clock his Majesty and the Royal Family came from Kensington to reside here during the Winter.

Dublin, October 10.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave to renew our solemn Assurances of the most zealous and affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

We must ever be deeply affected at any melancholy Event in your Majesty's Royal Family, and embrace this first Opportunity to present our sincere Condolence on the great Loss lately sustained by these Nations.

Your Majesty, upon that solemn Occasion of publick Grief, engaged in all the Offices of paternal Affection and Tenderness, (to which alone few Minds could have been equal) even then made the future Safety of your People the principal, the immediate Object of your Concern.

It is your Majesty's Glory not only to have made the Laws the Standard of your Government, and the Ease and Happiness of your Subjects the constant Object of your Attention through the whole Course of your auspicious Reign, but to have generously extended your Royal Care to the Preservation of our happy Constitution to succeeding Ages.

We want Words sufficiently to express the Reverence and Gratitude, with which our Hearts are filled, when we consider the Greatness and the Goodness of your Majesty's Mind.

May the Divine Providence long bless us with the Continuance of your precious Life, and perpetuate the Crown of these Realms in your Majesty's Illustrious House, for the Security and Happiness of our latest Posterity.

We esteem it a particular Mark of your Majesty's Goodness, that you have been pleased, a second Time, to commit the Government of Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Dorset, whose Zeal for your Majesty's Service, and the Prosperity of this Kingdom, we still happily experience in the beneficial Effects of his Grace's former Administration.

A just Regard to the Welfare of our Country must make us ever solicitous for the Security and Advancement of the Protestant Interest and the Trade of this Kingdom. We shall therefore be particularly attentive to the Support of the Charter-Schools, and the Improvement of our Linen Manufactures; and beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will chearfully concur in every Measure which may promote the publick Good, and contribute to the Ease, Stability and Honour of your Majesty's Reign.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

My Lords,

I Will forthwith transmit this Dutiful and Affectionate Address to be laid before his Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to present your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for those Gracious Intentions for the Advancement of our Happiness, of which your Majesty hath given us a most signal Instance, by again delegating your Royal Authority to his Grace the Duke of Dorset, whose former Administration was one continued Proof of his Grace's sincere Zeal for your Majesty's Service, and the Prosperity of this Kingdom.

Permit us, Sir, with all Humility, to condole with your Majesty on the great Publick Loss lately sustained by these Nations, and to express our Reverence and Admiration of that heroic Constancy of Mind, which not only supported your Majesty under the Pressure of so heavy an Affliction, but enabled you to exert your Royal Vigilance, to guard your faithful Subjects, (as far as human Prudence can guard them) from the dangerous Consequences which might otherwise arise from any fatal Event.

Truly sensible of the unparalleled Justice and Benignity of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we cannot, without the deepest Anguish, look forward to that Period which your Majesty contemplated with the greatest Fortitude and Serenity; and we ardently wish, that that most salutary Law, which with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude, we ascribe to your Majesty's consummate Wisdom, may, by the Goodness of Divine Providence, become unnecessary, by lengthening that precious Life, upon the Continuance of which, the Felicity of all your Subjects so much depends.

We assure your Majesty, that we will, with the greatest Chearfulness and Unanimity, grant the usual Supplies; and as we have at all Times abundantly experienced your Majesty's paternal Goodness, so we acknowledge with particular Satisfaction and Thankfulness, your Majesty's gracious Attention to our Ease and Happiness, in recommending to us the Application of the Money, now remaining in the Treasury, (so far far as may be conſiſtent with the publick Service) toward the further Reduction of the National Debt.

We ſhould be wanting to ourſelves, if we at any Time neglected thoſe great Objects, the Security of the Proteſtant Intereſt in this Kingdom, and the Advancement of our Trade, and ſhall take into particular Conſideration, what farther Meaſures may be neceſſary for the Support of the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and the Improvement of our Linen and Hempen Manufactures, and are aſſured by long and happy Experience, that we can no Way ſo acceptably recommend ourſelves to the Continuance of your Majeſty's Royal Favour and Protection, as by promoting in the moſt effectual Manner the publick Good.

E. Sterling,
H. Alcock, } Cler. Dom. Com.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will take the firſt Opportunity to tranſmit this Dutiful and Loyal Addreſs to be laid before his Majeſty.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Grace our moſt humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We look upon it as a freſh and ſignal Inſtance of his Majeſty's paternal Regard for our Happineſs, that he has again placed your Grace in the high Station, which you formerly fill'd with ſuch diſtinguiſh'd Honour to yourſelf, and Advantage to this Kingdom: And we moſt gratefully acknowledge the happy Effects of thoſe faithful Repreſentations, which your Grace has, upon all Occaſions, made to his Majeſty, of our dutiful and affectionate Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Government.

The ſincere Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, and for our Proſperity, which we have ever experienced to be your Grace's governing Principle, lays us under the ſtrongeſt Obligations of promoting with Temper and Unanimity, whatever tends to the publick Welfare, and the Eaſe of your Grace's Adminiſtration.

His Majeſty's faithful Subjects of Ireland are too zealous for the Preſervation of the Crown in his illuſtrious Houſe, not to have been deeply affected by the late publick Loſs. And the Greatneſs and the Goodneſs of his Majeſty's Mind, in immediately propoſing thoſe ſalutary Proviſions, which have ſince paſſed into a Law, fill us with the warmeſt Sentiments of Reverence and Gratitude. But tho' we are ſecured, as far as human Wiſdom can reach, againſt the Conſequences of any fatal Event, yet we muſt offer up our ſincereſt Prayers for the Continuance of the ſacred Life of a Sovereign, who is not more watchful to prevent, than he has been powerful to defend us againſt every Danger.

We are juſtly ſenſible of your Grace's Goodneſs in recommending the Security of the Proteſtant Intereſt and the Advancement of our Trade, as the two great Objects which demand our conſtant and moſt ſerious Attention. The Proteſtant Schools, which were eſtabliſh'd by a Charter obtain'd during your Grace's former Government, and the Linen Manufactures, have already contributed greatly toward the Attainment of thoſe important Ends; and we will take into our earlieſt Deliberations, whatever may be neceſſary for their further Support and Encouragement.

Experience gives us the fulleſt Confidence in your Grace: And we reſt aſſured, that nothing will be wanting that may effectuate his Majeſty's gracious Intentions, to make his Subjects of Ireland happy, as we ſhall always continue moſt dutiful and loyal.

Hen. Boler Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Return your Lordſhips Thanks for this affectionate Addreſs, and for the very obliging Manner in which you expreſs your Satisfaction on my Return to this Government. I am convinced, the moſt effectual Way of preſerving your good Opinion, is, by continuing to exert my utmoſt Endeavours in promoting his Majeſty's Service, and the Proſperity of this Kingdom.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, return your Grace our moſt humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne, and beg Leave at the ſame Time, to expreſs our ſincereſt Congratulations on your Grace's happy Return to the Government of this Kingdom.

We conſider it as a very peculiar Inſtance of his Majeſty's Goodneſs to his Subjects of Ireland, that he hath again committed them to your Grace's Care; your former Adminiſtration muſt be gratefully remembred, as the Effects of it are ſtill moſt ſenſibly felt by us; but the Concern, that your Grace has ſince ſhewn for the Welfare of this Kingdom, and the effectual Support you have given to our Intereſts, in the ſeveral Stations you have ſo eminently filled, muſt now create in us a Satisfaction, which Words cannot ſufficiently expreſs.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, that we will readily and chearfully grant ſuch Supplies, as ſhall be neceſſary for the Support of his Majeſty's Government. His Majeſty's gracious Recommendation, that a Part of the Money now in the Treaſury, ſhould be applied towards the Reduction of the National Debt, is a convincing Proof (if any were yet wanting) that his Majeſty is ever attentive to the Eaſe and Happineſs of his People, and that your Grace hath made them the conſtant Objects of your Conſideration.

Your Grace hath been pleaſed to point out to us, the Security of the Proteſtant Intereſt, and the extending our Trade and Manufactures, as important Objects of our Deliberations. Theſe we ſhall ſteadily purſue with the utmoſt Temper and Unanimity.

Animated as we are, with the ſtrongeſt Senſe of Duty and Loyalty to the beſt of Kings, and poſſeſſed with the fulleſt Confidence of your Grace's Zeal for his Service, and of your diſtinguiſhed good Diſpoſition towards us, we ſhall not fail to contribute every Thing in our Power, to make your Adminiſtration as eaſy and as honourable to your Grace, as we are aſſured, it will prove Happy and Advantageous to the Publick.

E. Sterling, } Cler. Dom. Com.
H. Alcock, }

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Am extremely obliged to the Houſe of Commons for this very kind Addreſs. This publick Mark of your Satisfaction, on my Return to this Kingdom, gives me the greateſt Pleaſure, and I ſhall take every Opportunity of convincing you, that I have nothing ſo much at Heart, as the true Intereſt of Ireland.

Petersbourg, Oct. 12. The laſt Advices received here from the Ukraine ſay, that Count Raſoumoſſky, Commander in Chief of the Coſſacks, arrived at Gluckow the Beginning of laſt Month, and had taken Poſſeſſion of that important Poſt; after which he ſet out for Batturin, to viſit the Fortifications of the Caſtle of that Place. During the Stay of Count Raſoumoſſky at Gluckow, the Atteman or Chief of the Coſſacks of Sporavia, arrived there with a numerous Retinue, to compliment him upon his new Dignity, and upon his Arrival in the Ukraine; and on the 24th the ſaid Atteman ſet out from thence with his Retinue on his Return Home, after having taken his Leave of Count Raſoumoſſky, and received ſeveral rich Preſents from him.

Turin, Oct. 12. On Tueſday laſt M. Verelſt, Envoy Extraordinary from the States-General of the United Provinces, had his private Audience of Leave of the King, and of the reſt of the Royal Family, and was preſented with his Majeſty's Picture richly ſet with Diamonds.

Warſaw, Oct. 16. We have received Advice from Kaminieck, that Count Branicky, Great General of the Crown Army, being arrived there to viſit the Fortifications and Magazines of that Place, the Baſhaw of Choczim had ſent an Officer of his Garriſon to compliment him upon his Arrival, and to aſſure him of the Grand Seignior's Intention to live in perfect Friendſhip with his Maſter the King of Poland; and that Count Branicky had thereupon returned the Compliment by one of his own Officers, by whom he had ſent a conſiderable Preſent to the Baſhaw.

Munich, Oct. 19. The Baron de Burmania, Envoy Extraordinary from the States-General to the Court of Vienna, arrived here on Wedneſday Morning laſt from the Hague, being charged with a private Commiſſion from the States his Maſters to this Court. The next Day he had an Audience of the Elector, and met with a gracious Reception. 'Tis ſaid he will ſtay here a few Days, and then proceed on his Journey to Vienna.

Ratisbon, Oct. 21. The Ratification of the Emperor, by which his Imperial Majeſty approves of the Choice of Count Hohenembs to fill the Poſt of General of Horſe of the Empire, has been communicated to the Diet by the Miniſter of the Elector of Mayence. There has likewiſe been delivered to the Diet, a Letter from Count Seckendorff, Governor of Philipſbourg, repreſenting the bad Condition in which he found the Fortifications of that Place, and deſiring Orders may be given for putting the ſame into immediate Repair.

Vienna, Oct. 23. The Departure of Prince Charles of Lorrain for the Low Countries is deferred for ſome Days. On Thurſday Morning laſt the Emperor, accompanied by his Brother Prince Charles of Lorrain, and attended by ſeveral Lords of the Court, ſet out for the Country Seat of Prince Averſperg, his Imperial Majeſty's Maſter of the Horſe, in order to take the Diverſion of Shooting for a few Days. The Court having received Advice that a Ship from Dalmatia, having the Plague on board, was got into the Italian Seas, has ſent ſtrict Orders to the Commanders of Trieſte, Fiume, and Leghorn, not to ſuffer, upon any Pretence whatſoever, the ſaid Ship to enter into either of thoſe Ports; and the like Orders are gone to the reſt of the Maritime Places in the Dominions of his Imperial Majeſty.

Berlin, Oct. 26. The Princes Henry and Ferdinand, who arrived here on Saturday laſt from Potzdam, ſet out Yeſterday Morning on their Return thither. We have received Advice from Prentzlow, that the young Princeſs, of which the Spouſe of the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe Darmſtadt was brought to Bed on the 16th Inſtant, was chriſtened two Days after by the Name of Louiſa. Within theſe few Days paſt ſeveral of the Nobility and General Officers are ſet out from hence, with the King's Permiſſion, for Stockholm, in order to be preſent at the Coronation of their Swediſh Majeſties.

Copenhagen, Oct. 28. The King, who went the Beginning of laſt Week to take the Diverſion of Hunting in the Neighbourhood of Jagerpreys, returned here on Tueſday Night laſt. The Baron de Woſs having taken his Leave of the King, Queen, and the reſt of the Royal Family, ſet out on Wedneſday laſt on his Return to Berlin. Before his Departure he received the diſagreeable News, that the Veſſel, on board of which was his Equipage, and ſome of his Domeſticks, had periſhed at Sea between this Port and that of Stetin. The young Prince of Anhalt Cothen having lately quitted this Service, to enter into that of his Pruſſian Majeſty, the King has given to M. Schulenbourg the Command of a Company which that Prince held in the Horſe Guards.

Bruſſels, Oct. 28. We learn from Liege, and divers other Places ſituate along the Meuſe, that the Waters of that River had ſwelled ſo very much towards the End of laſt Week, as to overflow their Banks in ſeveral Places, and have done an infinite deal of Damage.

Hambourg, Oct. 29. According to the laſt Advices received here from Poland, the Election of a Marſhal of the Tribunal of Petrikau, after it had been long debated, fell on Count Malachowſky. By Letters from Stockholm we learn, that the States of that Kingdom continue their Deliberations with great Unanimity; and that the King had diſpoſed of the three Places, vacant in the Senate, in Favour of Baron Lovenhielm, Count Strombourg, and Baron Scheffar.

Hague, Nov. 4. My Lord Holderneſſe, one of his Britannick Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, arrived here Yeſterday Morning from London, and ſet out immediately for the Houſe in the Wood, where he had a private Audience of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Royal.

London,
